

Welcome to North Dakota Division of Vocational Rehabilitation, or DVR!

We are committed to assisting individuals with disabilities to maximize their employment potential and options. We understand that the uncertainty of knowing where to turn for assistance in either finding or maintaining employment can be frustrating. If you are found eligible for our services, we can help you determine the career path that is right for you, based on your strengths, interests and abilities.

This DVR Client Toolkit was created to present you with a description of the entire vocational rehabilitation process from application to post-employment. As you read the information or review it with your counselor, be sure to ask questions. This will help you understand your rights and your responsibilities in the process.

You will be working with a person who is a qualified rehabilitation counselor and/or who is being supervised by one.

DVR will work with you to help you reach your goals, but ultimately, you hold the key to success.

STOP! Read Carefully

DVR is the right agency to meet your needs if...

- You have a medically documented disability that is making it hard for you to get or continue to work.
- You need some specific services to get work.
- You want to work.
- You are ready to move forward in gaining or maintaining employment.

DVR is not the agency you are looking for if...

- You don't have a disability.
- You don't want to work.
- You want DVR to help you get a disability exemption.
- You are seeking services like food stamps.
- You are being forced to be here and you do not want to be here.
- You are not ready to move on toward employment.
- You are only looking for services specifically prohibited by law such as the purchase of land, buildings, etc.

DVR can help you find out what your interests and abilities are so you can determine a career path.

DVR can help you figure out what barriers to employment you may have.

DVR can help you find out how to change or minimize the barriers that are keeping you from employment.

DVR can help you figure out what services you need to become employed and how to obtain those services.

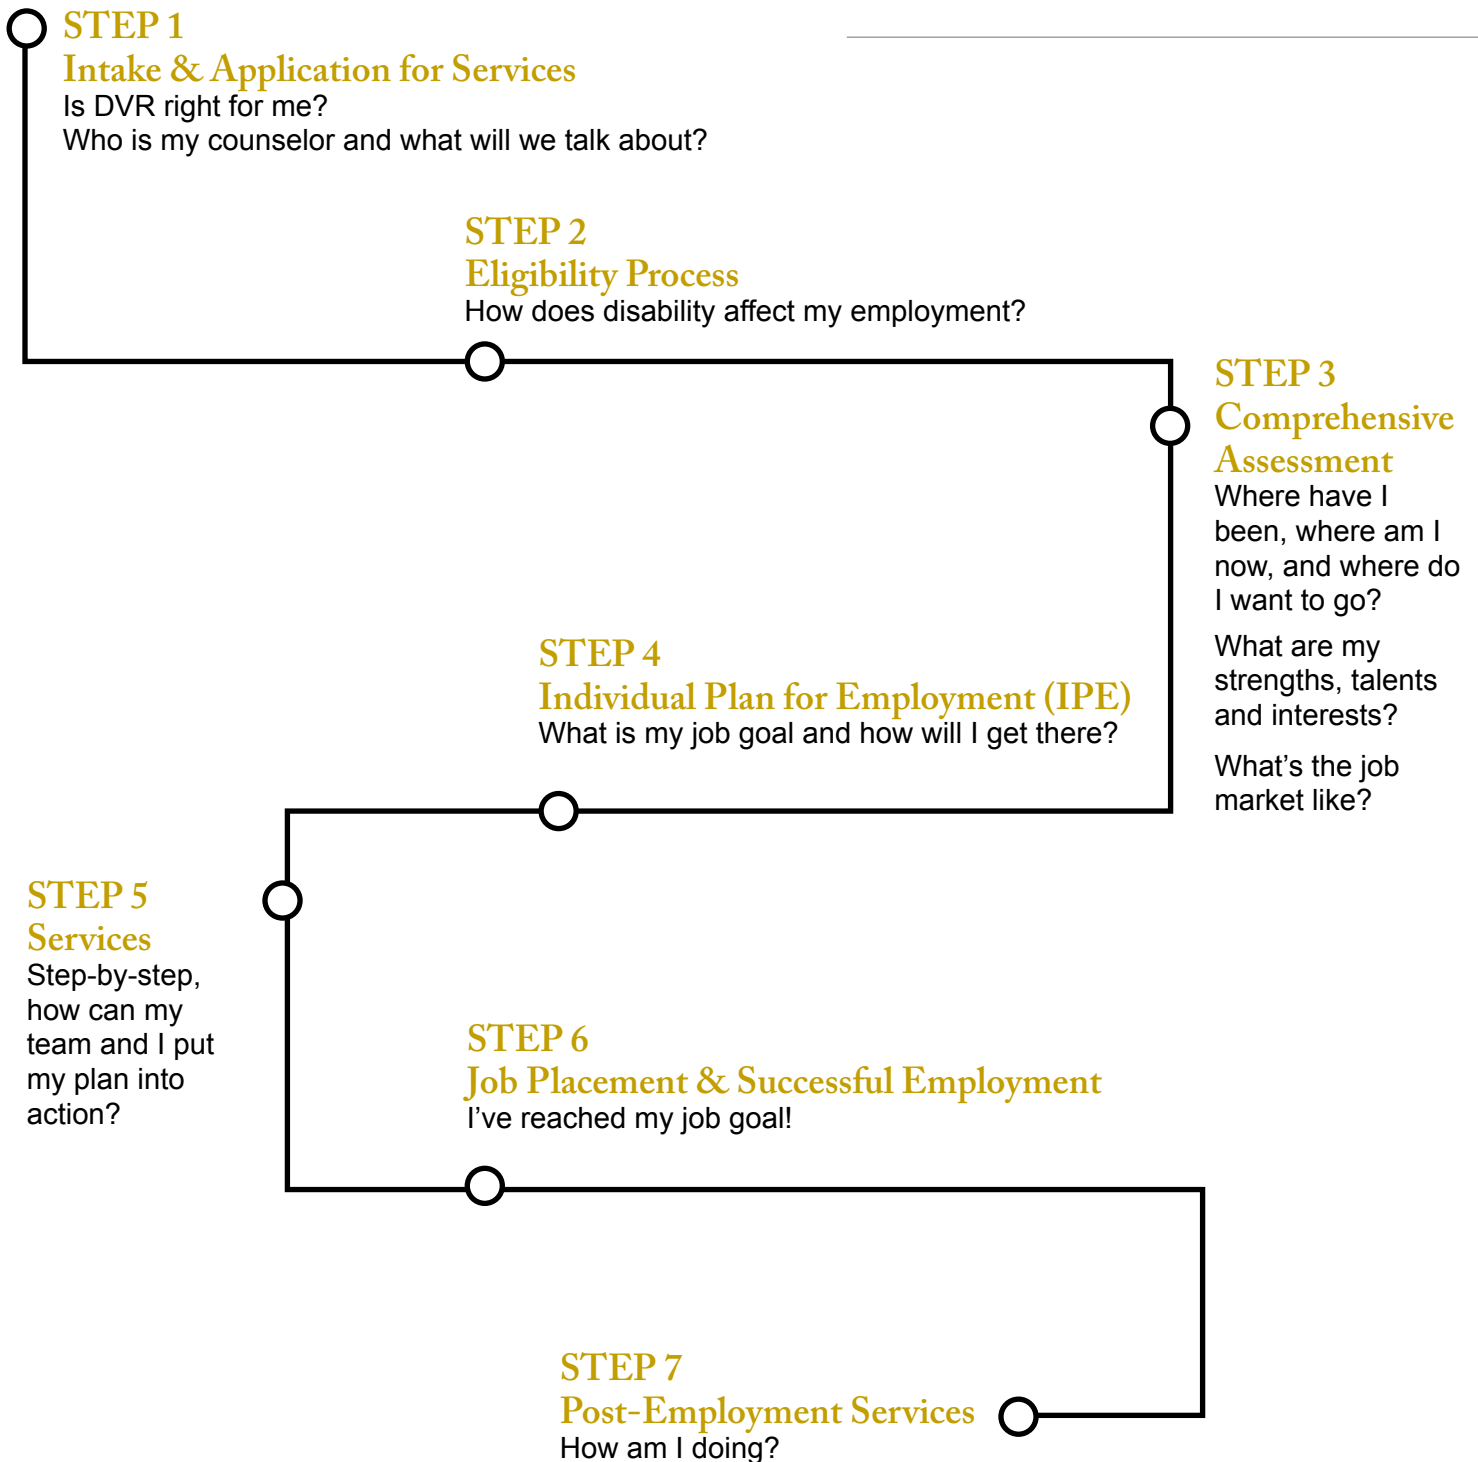

DVR treats your information in a confidential manner.

If your counselor believes you are going to harm or endanger yourself or others, he/she is required to notify the endangered individuals, the proper authorities and/or officials.

For minors/guardianships: If you are a minor or not your own guardian, then the information in your file may be available to your legal guardian or advocate.

ND DVR's Pathway to Employment

My path will be different than other individuals, but my DVR team will be there to help me along the way.

STEP 1

Intake and Application for Services

At your first meeting, your DVR counselor will talk with you about:

- Your disability and medical history.
- Your barriers to employment.
- Your employment history.
- Your educational history.
- Your hopes and dreams for the future.
- What services you think you might need to get into, or stay in employment.
- Information about your family, your finances, etc., in order to get a good picture of what you need from us.
- What services DVR has and what the vocational rehabilitation process is all about.

You apply for services in the office with the counselor's assistance or on your own after you have met with the counselor.

If you want to apply for services, DVR will:

- If needed, ask you to sign release of information forms so that information can be obtained from doctors, schools, and other relevant contacts to determine your eligibility.
- If needed, set up appointments with doctors, psychologists, or for evaluations to help us know more about your ability and also about your disabilities.
- Pay for any appointments that we arrange for or with you.

It is your responsibility to attend the appointments or to call us if there is a good reason that you cannot attend so the appointment can be rescheduled.

The image displays three forms used in the application process for DVR services. The first form on the left is the 'ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF RECEIPT OF THE NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES' from the ND Department of Human Services, Legal Services, dated 09/18/2013. The middle form is the 'PERSONAL DATA FORM' for the ND Department of Human Services, Vocational Rehabilitation, dated 09/18/2013. The third form on the right is the 'ND Vocational Rehabilitation' application form, dated 09/18/2013. The forms contain various fields for personal information, including name, address, city, state, zip code, telephone number, social security number, date of birth, sex, race/ethnicity, highest level of education attained, work status, and employment history. The forms also include sections for the applicant's signature and the counselor's signature, and a section for the applicant to indicate if they are requesting service.

Forms used in the application process may be downloaded from the DHS website at www.nd.gov/humanservices/services/disabilities/vr

STEP 2

Eligibility Process

Once you have completed the intake process, your case will be opened. Your assigned counselor has up to 60 DAYS from the date DVR receives your application to determine if you are eligible for vocational rehabilitation services.

DVR will pay for any appointments that we ask you to attend. It is your responsibility to attend the appointments or to call us if there is a good reason that you cannot attend so the appointment can be rescheduled.

People who are eligible for services are those who:

- have a physical or mental impairment;
- have a substantial impediment to employment and require vocational rehabilitation services to become employed;
- are presumed to benefit from DVR services unless there is clear and convincing evidence they cannot due to the severity of their disability.

People receiving SSI or SSDI benefits who want to work are presumed eligible for DVR services..

If DVR notifies you that you are not eligible, you have the right to appeal within 30 days of being notified.

STEP 2

STEP 3

Comprehensive Assessment

You are about to participate in a program to assist you in making decisions regarding the right vocational path for you. As in any service, what you get out of it depends on what you put into it. Success comes through a working partnership between you and your counselor.

The first thing you and your counselor will do is talk about:

- all your strengths, interests, abilities;
- job market conditions;
- training options that meet your needs;
- choices you have, what barriers you have and how to work around them.

During this step you may be asked to:

- complete interest inventories;
- conduct labor market research; or
- complete further evaluations to determine what profession best suits your interest and abilities.

STEP 4

Individual Plan for Employment (IPE)

DVR services are built around INFORMED CHOICE. You and your counselor will discuss a great deal of information and a number of options. Working together, a career path will be identified that reflects your strengths, interests, and abilities.

You and your counselor will then write an Individual Plan for Employment, or IPE. The first question on the plan is, "What job goal do you want to work towards?" Your plan should be based on your interests, abilities, skills, and job market.

It is important that you stay in touch with your counselor so they know when something happens that might change the course of your IPE. Your IPE will work more effectively the more you communicate with each other.

If your DVR counselor doesn't think you can do that job, or get a job in the area in which you want to live, then you and your counselor need to talk more because you both must agree that the goal is right for you and achievable in the current job market.

Dispute resolution, mediation, and information are available to you through the CLIENT ASSISTANCE PROGRAM, if you and your counselor cannot reach an agreement.

You and your counselor will plan the steps you need to take to reach your job goal. You will write down all the services you need, when they start and stop and who will provide them. You will also write down how much the service will cost and who will pay for what. Sometimes DVR will pay part or all of the cost. Sometimes you will pay for some or all of the cost, and sometimes other agencies will pay for some or all of the cost. Services must be authorized by DVR before they can begin. This plan will also include a list of your responsibilities.

EMPLOYMENT PLAN
AG Department of Human Services/VR
SPN 8116 (Rev. 03/2006)
• Electronic Copy

Name: _____

This is a plan which outlines steps for me to reach my employment goal. It has to be reviewed at least once a year. However, my counselor and I can review and change it at any time. Goods and services listed in this plan will be provided in the most integrated setting.

I will be notified if this plan has to be changed or suspended due to such things as availability of funds, time changes, availability of services or any other reason.

My choice for an employment goal is:

I chose this goal because:

STEP 5

Services

DVR offers many types of services. Your plan is customized to suit your needs and abilities. The services that go on your IPE are what you need to achieve your employment goal. DVR does not take a “cookie cutter” approach to services.

Someone else may receive a service that you will not. Your counselor will work with you to figure out what services are specific to your needs. If you think YOU need something, be sure and ask! If DVR can help, we will, or we will explain why not.

COLLEGE OR VO-TECH EDUCATION

You and your counselor will talk about your abilities in an effort to determine if college or vocational-technical, or vo-tech school is right for you. If so, you will work together to determine what you want to learn and what colleges offer the type of program you are seeking.

WHEN CHOOSING A COLLEGE OR VO-TECH SCHOOL, IT IS IMPORTANT TO THINK ABOUT:

- How long you can afford to stay out of the work force.
- How you will support yourself or family.
- What services are available at college to help you succeed?
- If you are willing to move in order to attend college or get work after college.
- How supportive your family is about you attending college.
- How committed you will be in terms of time to spend succeeding in college.
- Will there be jobs in the field you want and in the location you want?

IF IT LOOKS LIKE COLLEGE OR VO-TECH IS A GOOD OPTION FOR YOU, HERE IS WHAT YOU NEED TO DO:

- Apply for admission
- Apply for financial aid.
(DVR is unable to determine what we can help you with until the college gives you a financial aid award letter.)
- Meet with the school to determine what their placement rate is in the field you are interested in.
- Meet with the school to talk with Disability Support Services if you need accommodations in the classroom.
- Let DVR know of your admission status.
- Bring in your financial aid award letter as soon as you get it.
- Meet with your DVR counselor to determine what DVR can assist with.

DVR WILL NOT BE ABLE TO HELP YOU WITH THE EXPENSE OF COLLEGE OR VO-TECH PROGRAMS IF:

- You are in default of a past student loan. DVR will not be able to assist you until you have made arrangements to develop a re-payment plan and have shown good-faith effort to follow this re-payment plan.
- You have not maintained an agreed-upon grade point average that meets the schools requirement each semester.
- You have dropped out of school. You may have to complete a semester at your own expense to show your good-faith effort to complete school.

ON THE JOB TRAINING, COLLEGE OR VO-TECH ARE NOT FOR EVERYONE. SOME PEOPLE:

- Do not have the time.
- Don't want to attend college or vo-tech.
- Learn better in other ways.
- Find it difficult to attend college because of family or other obligations.

It is also important to know that some jobs will not require a college or vo-tech degree. Your counselor can work with you to find out if there is a better way to learn skills to become employed such as:

- On-the-job training.
- Seminars or class training.
- Working with the Adult Learning Center to improve on some skills in a less stressful way.
- Working one-on-one with a trainer to learn a special skill.

JOB ACCOMMODATIONS

DVR can help you determine if there are special accommodations you need to find or keep your current job should you have or incur a disability. Perhaps you are having problems learning the job, learning new job-related tasks, or a new disability is making your job difficult. You and your counselor can discuss what problems you are having and what to do about it. Some of the things that we can look at providing are:

- Job coaching, if you are having problems learning your job or learning new things on your job.
- Assistive technology, such as magnifiers, hearing aids, different computer screens that might make your job easier.
- Scooters or stools that might make it easier for you to get around at your job.
- On-the-job training for your employer to help you learn new skills for a different job if you can no longer do the one that you used to do.
- Working with your employer to figure out what will work best for both of you on the job.

SELF-EMPLOYMENT

Self-employment may be a good option for you. There are many things to think about before choosing this option. You and your counselor can discuss all the pros and cons of self-employment in-depth. Here are some things you need to think about:

- What skills do I have?
- What services do I provide?
- What is the competition in this location?
- How much money do I have to invest in this business?
- Will I be able to do this with my disability?
- Is my family supportive?
- What business experience do I have?
- How is my credit?

If you decide you want to pursue self-employment, you will have a lot of work to do! You will be:

- Given or shown a self-employment CD entitled “PLANNING FOR SUCCESS” to help you clearly understand the challenges of self-employment.
- Referred to places like the Small Business Administration to assist you in the planning necessary to obtain financing and find business success.
- Asked to meet with your counselor and one other counselor to do a Business Assessment Scale, or BAS, which points out the possibilities of the business succeeding. The BAS also points out areas in which you may need additional training before opening a small business.

The “Planning For Success” CD will help you understand the challenges of self-employment.

This option will take a lot of time, commitment, personal energy and finances, on your part. But, if you and your counselor feel it is the right option, DVR will do everything we can to help you succeed. DVR financial assistance is never guaranteed and depends on the nature of the business, what you have done to invest in yourself, and what other funds are available to you.

HOME-BASED EMPLOYMENT

This is also a possibility. There are a few options that you may have. Some are not financially rewarding, such as constructing crafts for other companies. Others earn more income but may require certain skills just like jobs outside of your home. One option is home-based medical transcriptions, for example. You have to be a very fast typist and be very disciplined to do the work. Home-based business is not a good option if you do not have family support, if you do not have the discipline to make yourself work at specific hours, or, if you have distractions at home such as small children.

SUPPORTED EMPLOYMENT

For people who have very severe barriers to employment because of their disability, we have a program called Supported Employment. This program is more intense in their direct work with people who need it. It also is for people who need a lot of help getting a job, learning a job and remaining on the job. After people go through this program, they receive life-long support from other agencies to remain on the job.

HOME-BASED EMPLOYMENT

STEP 6

Job Placement and Successful Employment

When you are ready to work, DVR will assist you in finding a job in the manner that works best for you. Some people prefer to conduct job searches and applications on their own, others may ask for the counselors help.

Some of the ways DVR can help include:

- Developing resumes
- Preparation for interviews, and
- Making referrals to employers.

At your request, DVR can also make direct contact with employers to discuss employment-related issues.

When you are working in the job you selected on your IPE, or one that is closely related to it, DVR will keep your file open for at least 90 days. Then, before closing your file, both you and your counselor must agree that everything is satisfactory and that you are doing well in your job.

STEP 7

Post-Employment Services

Post employment services may be provided after your file is closed if you need short-term assistance with your employment. Be sure to call your counselor if you think you might need these services.

For more information please see our policies on our website – www.nd.gov/dhs/dvr

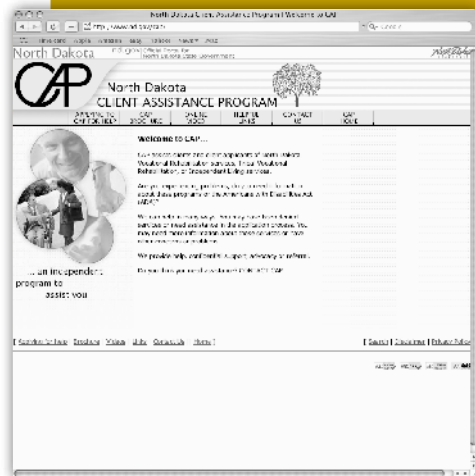

Resolving Issues and Concerns

You are applying for services under the Rehabilitation Act, as amended. As part of the application process you are being informed about help available to you through the North Dakota Client Assistance Program.

The Client Assistance Program is available to assist and advocate for you whenever you are dissatisfied with any action or inaction on the part of DVR or other programs you are working with. You may request help from the Client Assistance Program at any time. Call if you have questions, concerns, or problems with your eligibility or with services you would like or are receiving.

If you call, the Client Assistance Program will work with you to resolve your problem. Client Assistance will offer advice and provide you with help. Should it be necessary, the Client Assistance Program can also assist you with mediation or a Fair Hearing. The Client Assistance Program can be reached at:

Client Rights and Responsibilities

As a client of North Dakota Division of Vocational Rehabilitation (DVR), you have a number of rights and responsibilities. Following is a description of your key rights and responsibilities followed by a brief discussion in some instances.

You have the right to be treated with courtesy and respect. In return, DVR asks that you extend that same courtesy and respect to others.

You have the right to services without discrimination on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age or disability. You will not be discriminated against in any matter related to receiving a service, financial assistance or other assistance under the DVR program.

You have the right for your case file information to remain confidential.

- Your records will not be shared without your permission. If DVR needs medical or other information, we will ask you to sign a release form so we can get that information. If you are eighteen years old or older and you want someone from your family to be able to talk with your DVR counselor, you will need to sign a release for that family member.
- You have a responsibility to inform your DVR counselor about other agencies or programs you have worked with who may have information that would be helpful in planning your services, and to sign a release of information form so DVR can contact them.

You have both the right and the responsibility to participate in the planning and development of your vocational goal and rehabilitation services. It is important that you make your desires known and that you talk with your counselor anytime you think your program needs changing.

You have the right to make informed choices regarding your employment goal and services. You also have the responsibility to discuss the pros and cons of your choices and to come to an agreement with your DVR counselor about the services you will receive.

You have the right to timely services needed to achieve your employment goal.

- To help in receiving timely services, you have a responsibility to stay in touch with your DVR counselor, keep appointments and follow through on your IPE. It is also important to report any changes in address, telephone number, medical condition or other major changes affecting you. Should your counselor be unavailable, they will inform you of whom to contact.

You have the right to mediate or appeal any decision made by DVR that you disagree with.

You have the right to work with the Client Assistance Program (CAP) if you need information or help to resolve any issue or a concern you may have.

- If you think you might want to work with CAP, it will be your responsibility to contact them. CAP contact information is on page 12 of this handbook.

You have the right to review information in your case file

- If you wish to review your case file, it is your responsibility to give DVR advance notice so we can have the information ready for you.

You have the right to request a different counselor.

Before requesting a change in DVR counselors, you have a responsibility to attempt to work out any differences between you and your counselor. However, if that fails, please talk to the counselor's supervisor about the difficulty you are having and your desire to change counselors. You have the right to contact the Commissioner on Rehabilitation Counselor Certifications if you feel the counselor has acted in an unethical manner. For details, contact the regional Administrator in your respective DVR office.

You have the right to be consulted before your DVR file is closed.

Electronic/Computer Disclosure Checklist

The Electronic/Computer Disclosure Checklist is a tool to assist rehabilitation counselors in the disclosure of technology-specific standards within the Code of Professional Ethics for Rehabilitation Counselors, should this be applicable or necessary in their involvement with a client.

Notice of Privacy Practices

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

Meaning of “you,” “we,” and “department.” In this notice, when we say “we” or “us”, we mean the staff of the Department of Human Services. When we say “department” we mean the Department of Human Services. When we say “you,” “your”, or “yours,” we mean you as an individual and members of your family or household who live with you.

Understanding Your Personal Health Information. Personal health information is any information created and used by the Department, or received from a healthcare provider, about your healthcare. Information may include your name, address, birth date, phone number, social security number, Medicare number, health insurance policies, health information, your diagnoses, and the medical treatments you received.

Department’s Confidentiality Commitment. The Department is committed to protecting your privacy. Any personal health information about you that is generated by this Department or received from healthcare providers will be kept confidential to the full extent required by the law. The law requires us to maintain the privacy of protected health information, to provide you with this notice, and to abide by what this notice says. We may change what this notice says, but will provide you with information about any changes made if you are then receiving services from the Department or upon your request.

How Information is Used by the Department. Except as explained in this notice, we will disclose and use your personal health information only with your written authorization. We may use your personal health information for treatment, payment and healthcare operations without your written authorization (except if you are being treated for alcohol or drug abuse). “Treatment information” is information you give to us or a healthcare provider gives to us that will be used to determine the course of treatment and to document treatment you have received or will receive. “Payment information” includes a bill for services sent to you or to a health insurance company or Medicare and a bill for services from a healthcare provider, and may include information that identifies you, your diagnosis or other necessary information for accurate payment. “Healthcare operations information” includes information used to assess the care and outcomes in your case and other cases and to assure the quality and effectiveness of healthcare services. We may also use or disclose your personal health information to:

- Keep you informed about appointments, program information, and benefits and services that may be of interest to you;
- Notify another person responsible for your care if necessary;
- Communicate with any person you identify about that person’s involvement in your care or payment for your care;
- Business associates that perform functions on behalf of the Department;
- Other agencies as required for oversight activities such as licensure, inspections, investigations, audits, or Facility Accreditation;
- Law enforcement personnel for specific purposes, including reporting any suspected child abuse or neglect;
- Staff or research projects that ensure the continued privacy and protection of protected health information;

- Public health agencies to prevent or control disease and for statistical reporting to the Food and Drug Administration for reporting reactions to medications, to Workforce Safety and Insurance (formerly known as Workers Compensation) for benefit coordination, to government agencies in cases of national security or for military purposes, or to correctional institutions;
- Respond to a court order, or subpoena if efforts have been made to tell you about the request or to obtain an order protecting the information requested;
- Share with our business partners who perform case management, coordination of care, other assessment activities, or payment activities, and who must abide by the same confidentiality requirements.

Your Health Information Rights. You have the following rights regarding your personal health information maintained by Department:

1. You may request restriction on certain uses and disclosure of your information. We may not be able to agree to the requested restriction, but if approved, we will abide by it except in an emergency treatment situation or as required by law;
2. If you feel that some information the Department has created about you is wrong, you may ask to change that information. In certain situations, we may deny your request. We will notify you if we deny your request and tell you how to request a review of the denial;
3. You may inspect and obtain a copy of your personal health information in our possession. We may limit or deny you access in very limited circumstances. You have the right to request a review of most denials. We will notify you if we deny your request and tell you how to request a review of the denial. We may charge a fee for copies you request for personal use;
4. You may obtain a paper copy of this notice upon request;
5. You may revoke a signed authorization for the use or disclosure of your protected health information except to the extent we have already acted based on your authorization;
6. If you request, we will account for disclosures we have made of your protected health information made by us beginning in April 2003, except for disclosures to you, under an authorization, for treatment, payment, or health operations purposes, and a few other situations. We will not charge for the first accounting given to you in a twelve-month period. We will charge a fee for an additional accounting requested in that twelve-month period;
7. You may request that we contact you about personal healthcare matters only in a certain way (phone, e-mail, in writing) and at a certain location (home, office, at an address you have given).

For More Information or to Report a Problem. If you have questions and would like additional information, you may contact the Administrative Assistant, toll-free at 1-800-472-2622, Department of Human Services, Dept. 325, 600 East Boulevard, Bismarck, North Dakota, 58505-0250. If you believe that your privacy rights have been violated, you may file a complaint with the division or unit of the Department where you received services. You may also file a complaint with the Secretary of Health and Human Services, 1961 Stout Street – Suite 1426, Denver, CO 80294. Phone (800) 368-1018. FAX (303)844-2025. TDD (303)844-3439
